LIBRARY RULES.

1—Books must not be kept out over three weeks.

2—If the card is not in book when returned, or if the book or card has been exchanged, the scholar returning it will not be entitled to a book until the next Sunday.

3—Scholars will please put a slip of paper with their name and class on, when returning their book without card.

4—Scholars will not be entitled to a book unless present, except in case of sickness.

5—Please write at least a dozen numbers on your card, so that we will be able to supply one, and when you have less than five numbers thereon we will not be responsible or will not change book.

By observing all of the above rules you will greatly oblige,

Your humble servants,

THE LIBRARIANS.
